

Wolf Creek Indian Village & Museum
One Circle, Many Stories

Presents WCIV's Family Day

Fun for the entire Family,
Storytelling

Learn hands On Crafts in the village.(Pottery, Make a bead, trade a bead, Baskets, Hide tanning etc.) Participants receive an arrowhead necklace.

Saturday

June 11, 2011

Museum Opens 10:00 AM

Storytelling 11:00 AM - 3:30 PM

Crafts in Village 10 AM to 4:PM

Storytellers, Julia Ahwa-holeh Brown Carter, Kesiah/Shawnee/Cherokee & Darius "Absa-rokee" Carter Crow/Cherokee will be performing in the Council Lodge of the Village every hour. Ahwa-holeh is a traditional & new style storyteller. Absa-rokee is a traditional storyteller.

Members of the New Bulltown Delaware Munsee will be on hand to demonstrate and talk about tribal customs and culture of the Delaware Munsee. Plus other welcomed guests will be on hand with demonstrations.

Price $10 Adults and children. Under 4 years old free.
Active Military and Veterans $8: Senior Citizens $8